Art in Miniature

Lim Gek Kheng

Solo Painting Exhibition 2021

Introduction

“Art in Miniature”, Gek’s first solo painting exhibition in Singapore, opened on 13 December 2018 at the Visual Arts Centre. A total of 100 works were displayed. This miniature exhibition at Gek Contemporary is to celebrate the 3rd anniversary of the momentous event.

The 35 artworks shown here include Gek’s skyscapes and landscapes as well as copies of selected works by 7 Old Masters – Turner, Monet, Renoir, Degas, Vermeer, Friedrich and van Gogh.

The portrait of Stamford Raffles is the only remaining work from the SINGAPORE SECTION of the exhibition in 2018.

Artist Statement

Throughout my artistic journey, painting miniatures has held and still holds a special place in my heart. I have enjoyed the hours spent on putting tiny bits of paint with miniature brushes on the canvas or paper. I felt a great sense of accomplishment whenever a piece was completed. My last miniature oil painting was done in 2019. I am taking a long break now, not knowing when I would resume painting in oil or water colour again.
